Right spreads in the mind and clouds the site.
Right threads the mass and sews the mass tight.
Right defines wrong and defines darkness as light.

Narrow minded, regressive, repressive, being.
Right is all you're seeing.
Wrong is what right defines other beings.
Left others are when persecuted by the right wing.

Right rites the right to write right for world from the capitol site.

How trite but a true fright the insight of right beings who see plight,
flight from the light, cite rite to murder in the light,
until the world sees only right from the capitol site.

Right beings rite the right to shoot and loot and spit and hit
and toss in pit of shit from the capitol site to spurn and burn
the soul of all who see another way.

Right represses thought and the mass's rights.
Right regresses action and the mass's insight.
Right claims and preaches to know and show the mass right.

Violent soul, slash, shoot.
Right cries the rite to loot.
Wrong is the definition of right, too.
Left others are when right makes life moot.

How trite but a true fright the insight of right beings who see plight,
flight from the light, cite rite to murder in the light,
until the world sees only right from the capitol site.

Right beings rite the right to shoot and loot and spit and hit
and toss in pit of shit from the capitol site to spurn and burn
the soul of all who see another way.

Right raises the hand to strike the mass with might.
Right lowers the fist from the heights.
Right kills and the right takes flight.

Violent mind pushes the body to spit.
Right cries the right to hit.
Wrong is the definition the right emit.
Left others are to burn in Right's pit.

How trite but a true fright the insight of right beings who see plight,
flight from the light, cite rite to murder in the light,
until the world sees only right from the capitol site.

Right beings rite the right to shoot and loot and spit and hit
and toss in pit of shit from the capitol site to spurn and burn
the soul of all who see another way.

Right shows others their life is trite.
Right wants to see the mass plight.
Right lies and kills to create mass fright.

Violent minds never see the new turn.
Right cries for the bodies in the pit to churn.
Wrong is the definition right will never learn.
Left others are to lie in the pit and burn.

How trite but a true fright the insight of right beings who see plight,
flight from the light, cite rite to murder in the light,
until the world sees only right from the capitol site.

Right beings rite the right to shoot and loot and spit and hit
and toss in pit of shit from the capitol site to spurn and burn
the soul of all who see another way.

Right is always the first to alter the right.
Right chooses when to define the right.
Right hides and thieves and steals and kills with the right.

Violent souls of the right feel as they may.
Right decries the soul to kneel or lay.
Wrong is the definition right will never say.
Left are others when right is the only way.

How trite but a true fright the insight of right beings who see plight,
flight from the light, cite rite to murder in the light,
until the world sees only right from the capitol site.

Right beings rite the right to shoot and loot and spit and hit
and toss in pit of shit from the capitol site to spurn and burn
the soul of all who see another way.
